November Students

Student	Teacher	School	Grade	Comments
Bella Crouch	Ms. Cabrera	Discovery Elementary	Second grade	Bella is a super student, a very hard worker and always participates.
Jordyn Wilcox	Ms. Hodges	Pride Elementary	Fifth grade	According to all of her teachers she is the perfect example of Pride Elementary's four core values: responsibility, respect, cooperation and safety. Jordyn was nominated by all of the special area teachers and academic coaches for her helpfulness and effort.
Christian Jung	Ms. Ossler	Timbercrest Elementary	Fifth grade	Christian is an A's and B's only student who is very motivated, hardworking, courteous and original. He recently came in third place in the Summer Blogger 2010/Kidz Connection Kid Reporter online program. There were hundreds of nominees from all over the country, so third place is really impressive. He had one of his stories from Ms. Wells class published.
Demetrios "Demetri" Roussakos RUE-SOCK-KOS with a long O sound in the "KOS" syllable & with an accent on the first syllable	Ms. Campbell	DeLtona Lakes Elementary	Fifth grade	Demetrios was nominated by his PE Coach and Safety Patrol advisor, John Washburn advisor who says that "Demetri" is an exceptional school citizen. He is the captain of the school Safety Patrol, the announcer for the DeLtona Lakes Elementary daily news, an honor roll student and a Red Ribbon award winner. He is one of the most dependable students who have attended our school.
Marcos Sierra	Mrs. Willis	Sunrise Elementary School	Fifth grade	Nominated for his outstanding citizenship.
Paul Bebee	Lisa Bynam	Heritage Middle	Eighth grade	Paul is an active student in the Heritage Middle School Agriscience and Future Farmer's of America Program. He competed in a public speaking contest along with other various leadership events. He attended both the State FFA Convention as a chapter delegate and the National FFA

				Convention where he accepted our 2 Star National Chapter award. He is raising a market lamb for the Volusia County Fair and is the Student Advisor or the Heritage Middle School FFA Chapter. His outgoing personality makes him loved by everyone that meets him. He is a wonderful student and very concerned citizen, as he always is looking out for the underdog.
Zachary Ewers		Galaxy Middle School	Eighth Grade	Zachary is one of only 11 middle school horn students from the state of Florida chosen to participate in the All-State Middle School band. He will go to the All-State conference in January in Tampa to represent Galaxy.
Yazmin Jehaludi (Je (short e)ha (hah), lu (long u), di (dee))	Vicky Collins	Deltona High School	Sophomore	Jasmine has a much improved attitude towards school. This year, she is a changed person and has greatly matured. She has learned to exercise self control. She's 100 percent better with regards to her attitude towards reading. She has the highest GPA in Ms. Collins class and has worked very hard over the past nine weeks. Her teacher, Ms. Collins says she is very proud of her.
Kaelyn Badura	Jennifer Dunkle	Pine Ridge High School	Junior	Kaelyn is the creator of Kinsey's closet, a non-profit clothing closet that offers free name-brand clothing to students in need. All of the clothes are laundered and steamed and are either new or slightly used. The closet is named for Kaelyn's cousin who was a public school teacher who spent her free time volunteering until she died from breast cancer in 2001. The closet has been up and running for two years. Kaelyn has also been selected to represent Pine Ridge High School as one of six of Volusia County's "Tomorrow's Leaders" participants and is also one of our 20 students who has been chosen for Florida's Engineering the Future program.
